LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dear Wolf Creek Parents and Students:

Summer Session is in full swing, and we are excited about the number of students registered for classes this term! Because of our Continuous Learning Year status, students have the opportunity to extend their learning beyond the traditional school calendar. We hope that it is a successful term for all of you.

We are also looking forward to fall term and hoping that you will help us get the word out about Wolf Creek. We have space available for new students, so spread the word!

In addition, fall enrollment letters will be sent in early August. If your enrollment plans have changed and you will not be attending Wolf Creek Online High School this fall, please contact Tracy Quarnstrom as soon as possible.

If you have questions or concerns about fall enrollment, please contact us as soon as possible.

COMMUNITY AWARENESS OPPORTUNITY IN SUMMER!

Are you ready to get Community Awareness Credit for the 2009-2010 school year? Or, are you interested in learning more about being a counselor or the field of mental health?

DETAILS

Our first opportunity of the year is going to be with Beth Jones from Bridges in Forest Lake. On Wednesday, July 15th at 11 a.m., Beth will be in lab. You will have a chance to learn more about a career in counseling, the field of mental health and other important topics! As an added bonus, pizza and pop will be served to all participants following the presentation.

Let your LM know if you are interested in attending. You can also drop in that day and check out the presentation if you're not sure now whether you'll be able to attend.

WHAT'S COMMUNITY AWARENESS?

You can put this opportunity toward the 15 required activities for Community Awareness class. If you're not sure what Community Awareness class is, students at Wolf Creek can earn ½ elective credit by participating in 15 various activities and completing a reflection for each. If you are interested in that class and you plan to be enrolled over the summer and during the 09-10 school year, email your LM and she can add it to your schedule so you can start working on your 15 activities now.

SEE YOU THERE!

You don't have to put this opportunity toward Community Awareness; you can earn 3% extra credit in any class if you'd like to do that instead. Come to listen and enjoy some pizza and pop on Wolf Creek!

Parents—We Need You!

As a charter school, Wolf Creek relies on parents to help out in some important areas.

Two areas that parents are needed for Fall 2009:

1. Parent representative position on the Wolf Creek school board.
2. Parent member of the Sexual Education Committee is needed.

For these and other ways that you can support Wolf Creek, contact Tracy Quarnstrom via phone (651-213-2017) or by email: tquarnstrom@chisagolakes.k12.mn.us
